VOLUME CVI.---NO. 51. ALEXANDRIA, VA., WEDNESDAY EVENING, MARCH 1, 1905. PRICE 2 CENTS.

"Shut your eyes, open your mouth and see what luck will bring you."

Many a woman is weak and sick, nervous and discouraged. She suffers from headache, backache and other ills. She wants to be well, but all she does is to shut her eyes and open her mouth for medicine and trust to luck for results. She "doctors" month after month, often year after year, in this same blind, hap-hazard fashion, and receives no permanent benefit.

Women take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription with their eyes open to the fact that it cures womanly ills. It cures irregularity. It dries debilitating drains. It heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. There is no trusting to luck by those who use "Favorite Prescription."

"In the year 1893 my health was poor," writes Mrs. J. Hack, of 242 Broadway, Buffalo, N. Y. "I suffered from falling of womb, a disagreeable discharge, painful monthly periods, headache, backache and pains in the limbs. Every month was confined to bed for two or three days. Was weak, nervous and hysterical; life was a burden to myself and I made every one in the family unhappy because I was so irritable. My husband got me four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and before I had taken the first bottle I was feeling some relief. The medicine made me well and strong, free from nervousness, aches and pain, and I felt like a new woman. Before I used the 'Favorite Prescription' I had been taking another physician's medicine for nearly three months, but had received no benefit. Your medicine is certainly the best in the world."

A man or woman who neglects constipation suffers from slow poisoning. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. Don't let a selfish seller over-persuade you to accept a substitute for these Original Little Liver Pills, first put up by old Dr. R. V. Pierce over 40 years ago. Much imitated but never equaled.

YOUR HAT

May Be a Stylish One, But It Makes Trouble.

A man usually buys a hat that's "in style," but the modern hat for men has lots to answer for.

Baldheads are growing more numerous every day. Hats make excellent breeding places for the parasitic germs which sap the life from the roots of the hair.

When your hair begins to fall out and your scalp is full of Dandruff it is a sure sign that these countless germs are busily at work.

There is but one way to overcome the trouble and kill the germs—that way is to apply Newbro's Herpicide to the scalp—it will kill the germs and healthy hair is sure to result.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

RUSSIAN TERRORISTS.

The utter impotency of the St. Petersburg police in the face of the terrorist organization is shown by the increasing boldness of the latter all over the city. Even on the steps of public buildings simple notices of Grand Duke Sergius' death were found. They read:

"The sentence of death passed upon Sergius Alexandrovitch was executed February 17 signed.

"THE FIGHTING ORGANIZATION OF THE SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY."

Moreover, the notices were neatly printed, a thing unknown in the days of the late Interior Minister Von Plehve, when similar notices were always run off on copying machines. The secret police then were too close on the heels of the terrorists to permit of the use of a printing press.

The Grand Duchess Marie Pavlovna, whose husband, the Grand Duke Vladimir, is high on the list of those condemned to death, is trying to shield his life with her own. Since "Red Sunday" the Grand Duke has not only been showered with threats and warnings, but has just received from abroad a formal letter signed by different groups informing him of his sentence to death and of the assignment of men to execute it. At the same time, the Grand Duchess Marie, like the Grand Duches Elizabeth in the case of Grand Duke Sergius, was notified that her life and her son's life would be spared, and she was appealed to not to go abroad in her husband's company.

The letters naturally terrorized the family and household of the Grand Duke, who has aged greatly during the last few weeks under the strain of what he insists is the unjust criticism which placed the responsibility for the bloodshed of January 22 wholly on his shoulders.

Although the Grand Duke's health had been falling for over a year, he is now almost a complete wreck. For a time the entreaties of his family and the warnings of the police sufficed to keep him within the walls of the palace, but since the funeral of Grand Duke Sergius Grand Duke Vladimir has shaken off restraint, declaring that he refuses to show cowardice, and not only drives out in a closed carriage, but on Sunday walked for a short time down the quay in front of the Winter Palace.

At his side, however, on each occasion was the Grand Duchess Marie Pavlovna. The Grand Duke tries to elude her, but she insists on being immediately apprised if he is going out, donning wraps and accompanying him. Yesterday Grand Duke Vladimir received a letter from one group which had previously warned him, saying his sentence was temporarily suspended, which is attributed either to a more correct appraisement of his share in the events of January 22 or to a general decision of the terrorists to give the autocracy a breathing spell and await the result of the assassination of Grand Duke Sergius. The latter coincides with the views of those acquainted with the methods of the terrorists, who point out that a succession of assassinations would defeat their object by compelling the emperor in the interest of the safety of the imperial family to thrust aside all question of concessions and to sanction the most drastic measures of repression.

AFTER ELOPERS.

As has been stated in the Gazette, Capt. Boardmen, chief of detectives in Washington last night received a telegram from the chief of police of New Brunswick, N. J., asking that he look out for and arrest Rev. J. F. Cordova, originally of Mexico, and more recently pastor of the Methodist Church at South River, N. J., who, it is reported, has for the third time eloped with Miss Julia Bowne. The clergyman and the woman left Jersey City Monday night, and, it is understood, went in Washington.

The first elopement of the couple occurred a few months ago, at which time the minister held the pastorate of the New Brunswick church, and Miss Bowne was a member of the church choir. After remaining away from the New Jersey town a number of weeks, the couple returned, the Rev. Cordova going back to his wife and children, and Miss Bowne to the home of her father.

After returning home, Miss Bowne told her father that the clergyman exerted a strange influence over her, and that she could not resist the impulse to run away with him. Upon his return to his family, Rev. Cordova, it is said, was received with open arms by his wife, and after admitting his guilt, promised to mend his ways.

It was only a short time after making this promise, however, that Cordova and Miss Bowne again disappeared from their respective homes. It was later learned that Cordova had gone to Mexico City, after which trace of him was lost until a few days ago, when the deserted wife learned that her husband was employed in the Coal and Iron Exchange Building, in New York city, and that the girl had returned to her father. Stationing herself at the door of the building, Monday afternoon, Mrs. Cordovo met her husband as he passed into the street, after office hours. After a heated quarrel, it is said, Cordova struck his wife in the face and ran down Cortland street to Broadway, the wife pursuing him, and keeping up a running fight.

Cordova boarded a moving car and escaped. Mrs. Cordova, however, learned that he was boarding in Jersey City, and went there. After failing to get any information as to her husband at the house at which he was supposed to have been living, Mrs. Cordova invoked the aid of the police.

Through their investigation, which was immediately made, the detectives and Mrs. Cordova learned that trunks, supposed to have belonged to the clergyman, had been removed from the boardinghouse to the Pennsylvania depot in Washington, and had been followed by a man and woman.

It is understood that the couple bought tickets to Washington and for that reason, the local police have been asked to keep a lookout for them.

Up to an early hour this morning no trace of the couple had been found by the police.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, MAR. 1, 1905

MR. LONGWORTH, of Ohio, under latitude of debate in the House yesterday discussed the subject of increasing the salaries of ambassadors, incidentally making a plea for the raising of the President's salary to $100,000. In emphasizing his argument for larger salaries for diplomats, Mr. Longworth related what he said was an authentic case, where an American minister received and entertained diplomats in a three room housekeeping flat, filled with the odors of cooking. He received in his shirt sleeves, and when his visitors arose to go he would present his card and say, "Consider your call returned." Conditions, said Mr. Longworth, made the qualifications in wealth of the oil refiner, steel magnate and gentlemen who converted the pig into breakfast luxury and tooth brushes the most requisite for the career of diplomacy. And this "shirt sleeve diplomacy" is what has brought ridicule upon many American diplomats in Europe and other countries. Because a man receives a small salary is no excuse for his being a boor.

A REPUBLICAN paper of Philadelphia says gross frauds were reported in connection with the city elections in Pennsylvania last Tuesday, especially in the cities of Philadelphia and Pittsburg and adds: "Whatever popular opposition to existing order of things had been aroused appeared to have been overcome by systematic repeating, ballot-box stuffing and list padding. At Pittsburg there were many riots, and one member of an election board died after being arrested. They were charged with placing a false bottom in the ballot-box." Now the charge of republicans cheating at elections and stuffing ballot boxes would be indignantly repudiated if even suggested by a democratic paper, but here it is in black and white by none other than the North American. Philadelphia is overwhelmingly republican, but the truth is that the republicans are so prone to cheating at elections that when they have not the democrats to cheat, they cheat themselves.

IN ORDER to correct the distorted vision of the State Department, which has been viewing the asphalt litigation in Venezuela through the spectacles of Assistant Secretary Loomis, President Castro has sent to Washington a confidential agent clothed with full plenipotentiary powers. The Venezuelan President, says the Philadelphia Record, has thus controverted in the most effective manner possible the reports that he is disinclined to discuss, and persists in evading any discussing of, the case. Special Envoy Dr. Paul denies having stated that the controversy is really between two American claimants to the Bermudez lake asphalt beds; but this is the truth of the matter. The asphalt trust, which is one of the claimants, has sought by befogging the issue to enlist the aid of this government to sustain its monopoly of "lake" asphalt.

IN CONTINUING his account of Amalgamated Copper in his last magazine article Mr. Thomas W. Lawson tells of his deal with Henry H. Rogers and answers his numerous critics, charging James M. Beck, Banker Eckels and others with being in the pay of the Standard Oil Company. In a newspaper statement Mr. Lawson has offered a large sum of money to charity if Mr. Beck would meet him before an audience in Boston, but the latter has prudently declined the challenge.

MINISTERS and laymen are holding meetings in Philadelphia to pray for the redemption of the city from vice and corruption. They have a tremendous undertaking on their hands.

THE PEOPLE of this section of the country have experienced four long months of winter, almost without a break, and today's indications are for a continuance.

MARCH came in like a lamb—with fleece as white as snow.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, D. C., March 1.

Ben Daniels, superintendent of the Arizona penitentiary, was one of the callers at the White House today. He came to give President Roosevelt two very handsome convict-made canes. Daniels is to be one of the President's Rough Rider guards in the inaugural parade, and while here will probably have several visits with his old commander. The President has a high regard for Daniels' many good qualities, and once nominated him for the marshalship for the territory. On that occasion, however, Daniels made a fatal error of judgment when attacked upon his record, by denying that he had served a term in prison. The President withdrew the nomination because Daniels told an untruth. "He had expiated the crime for which he served his term," said the President to a friend, "and as he had lived the right kind of life subsequently, the prison record should not have been charged against him. But when he lied upon his past, I was forced to drop him."

Senator Dolliver (rep., Iowa,) a member of the committee on interstate commerce, who has been laboring for the enactment of freight rate legislation, by this Congress, introduced a resolution into the Senate today providing for an investigation of the questions of additional legislation to regulate interstate commerce, fixing freight rates, etc. by a joint congressional commission, consisting of seven Senators and seven Representatives. A report shall be made to Congress by the tenth day of the new session. On objection, immediate consideration of the resolution went over.

Another chapter of the Northern Securities case was presented today in the form of argument submitted in the U. S. Supreme Court in the case of Harriman vs. the Northern Securities Company.

Mr. Lovering introduced a resolution in the House today authorizing the present House committee on interstate and foreign commerce to conduct an investigation of the Panama Canal Commission and the Panama Railroad Company after March 4.

President Roosevelt today sent a special message to Congress urging the necessity of passing some legislation at this session to supplement the existing law intended to prevent the spread of contagious diseases of animals from one State to another or to foreign countries. He says that recent decisions of federal courts have held that that the statutory powers of the Secretary of the Agriculture are inadequate to enforce regulations that prohibit the interstate movement animals which have been exposed to coutagion but which at the time of shipment have not yet devel ped visible signs of disease. The President closes by commending favorable consideration of the two bills on the subject proposed by the committee on agriculture.

The postoffice appropriation bill, as passed by the Senate today, increases the appropriation for pneumatic tube service $300,000, and authorizes an extension under existing law.

The Secretary of the Navy announced that Rear Admiral James H. Sands has been designated for appointment to succeed Captain W. H. Brownson as superintendent of the Naval Academy at Annapolis. He will assume his new duties in June or July. Rear Admiral Francis W. Dickens will succeed Rear Admiral Sands in command of the Atlantic coast squadron.

When on February 1 the United States practically took over the administration of the revenues of the republic of Santo Domingo the neighboring State of Haiti became alarmed and through its minister here made inquiry of the State Department as to whether it, too, was to be gobbled up by this country. Minister Leger called in person upon the Secretary of State and after being verbally reassured received a letter from Mr. Hay, dated February 9, in which he said: "In answer to your inquiry made this morning, it gives me pleasure to assure you that the government of the United States of America has no intention of annexing either Haiti or Santo Domingo, and no desire of acquiring possession of them, either by force or by negotiation, and that, even if the citizens of either of these republics should solicit incorporation into the American union, there would be no inclination on the part of the national government, nor in the spere of public opinion, to agree to any such proposal." Minister Leger, after thanking the secretary for his expression of sentiment and policy and stating that it would increase the confidence which his government had for the justice of the Americans, said: "The Haitians are too proud of their autonomy to ever think of consenting to the least attack upon it. The jealous care with which they have maintained it for more than a century may be a sure guarantee to you that they will neglect nothing to preserve it in all its integrity.

Inaugural Ball Room.

About 10.30 o'clock Saturday night President and Mrs. Roosevelt will attend the inaugural ball and return to the White House early, the limit being midnight.

The great court in the Pension building is undergoing a wonderful transformation, and by the evening of March 4, when it will be the rendezvous for 12,000 guests at the inaugural ball, it will present a far different appearance from what it did two weeks ago. A small army of architects and artists and florists and electricians is working day and night to perfect a gorgeous decorative scheme. Royal palms are en route from Porto Rico. Their leaves are from 18 to 25 feet long. On the upper balcony, surrounding the court, will be a row of evergreen trees 20 feet in height, while smilax and laurel in wreaths and garlands will cling to the walls and the columns and die away in a delicate tracery of green until they join the festoons of roses and orchids.

Electricians with the armament of pincers and fuses and wires and plugs are climbing the massive onyx columns and clinging like flies to the nooks and corners 100 feet above the ball-room floor. Tiny lights of one candle power are being strung from every vantage point, and around them will be twined the smilax and the laurel. The color scheme as it ascends will be subdued, until on reaching the roof which spans the court the effect will be that of a beautiful Italian sky, with all its fantastic shades and twinkling lights. The intent is to give the idea of an open-air court.

The royal palms will be set on the ground floor, and will reach above the first balcony. Asparagus vines will trace their way through the myriad lights on the music stand, where the members of the United States Marine Band will be grouped in their red coats and sombre trousers. The red will contrast against a background of gold, and over all will span an arch of light. The stand from which the President and the presidental guests will witness the merry-making will be a bower of American Beauty roses, with cut flowers, greens and Roman wreaths to complete the complement of color.

McClure's Magazine for March, which has been received from its publishers in New York, teems with interest from cover to cover. In the initial article, "The Subway Deal," Ray Stannard Baker tells how New York city built its new underground railroad and how at last the Subway is nourishing a new private monopoly. In "Modern Surgery," is recounted the great leaps forward of this science since the discovery of anesthetics and antiseptics. John La Farge continues his series of articles in "One Hundred Masterpieces of Painting." "Careless, Ignorant and Defiant Postmasters" throws amusing side-lights on a public office. The fiction of this number is exceptionally strong in quality and quantity, such names as Mary Stewart Cutting, Marion Hill, Edwin Lefevre, James Hopper etc., appearing among the contributors.

JAPANESE PUSHING ON.

General Kuropatkin's big army, it is thought, is on the verge of a disaster that may lead to a speedy termination of the war. His lines of communication are in such danger from General Kuroki's sweeping movement around his left flank that it is rumored in St. Petersburg that he has decided to order the retirement of his forces to Tie Pass, 40 miles north of Mukden. According to Russian reports Kuropatkin has replied to Kuroki's attack on the Russian left by a counter attack on the Japanese left. He has also seized a railroad bridge across the Shakhe and successfully resisted a Japanese attack on the center. While these counter attacks may have temporarily relieved Kuropatkin's position his communications are still imperiled. Under cover of his counter attacks he may even be withdrawing his stores to refuge in the mountain passes.

The victory of Kuroki's infantry over a division and a half of General Rennenkampf's famous cavalry near Tsinkhetchen was a remarkable achievement. In hill fighting the Cossacks were no match for them. As was stated yesterday, the Russian losses are estimated at over 2,000 men. They lost several machine guns and left 203 dead on the field.

Monday the Japanese extended their attack along the whole eastern front, and took Da Pass after a terrific battle. Late advices from Mukden report continued heavy fighting along the entire line yesterday, the Japanese making a general attack. The Russians made counter attacks at many places, and repulsed the Japanese at others. It appears that a general engagement has begun along the entire 100 miles of front. The reports, however are very conflicting.

The Japanese lines now extend from southwest to northeast and partly eastward of the Taitse river.

Acted on Osler's Suggestion.

After reading Dr. Osler's lecture on the uselessness of old men, Sherman W. Link, an aged scientific student, chloroformed himself to death yesterday at his home in St. Louis. When the door of his room was forced open his corpse lay on his bed beside an empty half ounce bottle that had contained chloroform and a newspaper clipping containing Dr. Osler's lecture. For several days Link had been discussing with friends Dr. Osler's theories, which he was inclined to regard with much favor. In fact, according to neighbors who knew him, he had become an earnest follower of Osler. Link was not reputed to be a crank. He was unmarried, and if he is survived by any relatives they probably reside in Holland, his native land.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. Today's Telegraphic News

War in the East.

London, March 1.—Though only fragmentary reports have been received regarding the great battle that is raging about Mukden, the veil which has been concealing the operations of Marshal Oyama is gradually lifting and reveals that Oyama is arranging one of the greatest enveloping movements in the history of warfare. It appears to be the intention of the Japanese commander to sever General Kuropatkin's line of retreat northward and make of Muken a second Sedan.

Oyama's force is believed to consist of 500,000 men, while the Russians have 400,000. The Japanese are spreading out in a half moon shape, with their right extending from Chacohu, thirty miles south of Mukden, to Sing King, ninety miles out of Mukden, and, at the proper moment, swing his right wing in a northwesterly direction, his objection being to pierce the railway between Mukden and Thieling before Kuropatkin can get to Thieling. If this can be accomplished Kuropatkin will be caught in a trap and cannot escape.

The Japanese victories yesterday occurred between Chacohu and Sing King, and they gave Oyama the long awaited opportunity of preventing Kuropatkin from sending a force eastward to interrupt the turning movement from Sing King.

The next few days, it is believed, will bring news that this turning movement which may end the war has begun.

St. Petersburg, March 1.—General Kuropatkin reports two Russian successes. The Japanese, he says, have been repulsed at Gaotulin, on the Russian left, while the Russians have captured the head of a bridge which crosses the Shahke river. In a later telegram Kuropatkin reports that the Russians still hold Kudiatse and Gaotulin.

General Stauverisk, the Govrnor of Uralsk, speaking regarding the situation in Manchuria, today, said the reports of privations among the troops were without foundation. He said: "The newspaper stories regarding privations among the troops in Manchuria are unscupulous inventions. I formerly commanded a regiment and know what scoundrels the soldiers are who write letters home complaining of their lack of food and clothing, and stating that they are starving and dying. The soldiers must suffer uncomplainingly, they say. I give you my word, however, that our soldiers are living luxuriously in Manchuria. They are overeating and are over heated. They have nothing to do. The authorities hampered them and when the soldiers come home, they will long to be in Manchuria again. They will say 'God give us another such war.'"

Peace Negotiations in Warsaw.

Warsaw, Russia, March 1.—Prolonged negotiations have been in progress between the authorities and the strikers of Warsaw province, and it now appears that the end of the strike is plainly in sight. Railway Director Ivanoff informed the railway strikers the last of the past week that the Czar would concede all their demands, but that these demands were not definitely formulated. He accordingly requested the strikers to state exactly what they wanted. The strikers then elected a deputation which presented 27 demands to Ivanoff, who accepted twenty-six of them, declaring the other one impracticable. He promised to concede these 26 points within a fortnight. The deputation replied that they would not accept a postponement and insisted on an immediate fulfilment of these demands. The authorities then surrendered, subject to the final assent of the Minister of Railways, who was communicated with by telegraph. A significant departure in this matter is that the authorities have recognized the strikers' right to negotiate with them on equal terms. This is an entirely new departure in Russian politics. The new development in the situation is that the cemetery workers have quit work, thus preventing the regular burial of the dead. All the hospital employes have formulated demands and threaten to strike tomorrow if their demands are not granted. Strikes such as these, it is expected, will occur daily, but the worst of the movement in Warsaw province, it is believed, is over. The willingness of the authorities to meet the men half way is a promise of quieter times to come.

St. Petersburg, March 1.—The revolutionary and strike movements have extended to the town of Kursk, in the province of the same name, in southern European Russia. Fighting has occurred between the rebels and troops, in which nineteen persons were killed and forty wounded. This is the first appearance of insurrection in this region.

A dispatch from Odessa says everything is quiet there.

Warsaw, March 1.—The strike on the Vistula railway which had been in effect for a week past ended today. Train service north and south has been resumed. In the other parts of Poland, the situation remains somewhat dangerous. The governor general's proclamation named a minor state of siege in the governments of Calisse, Lusiin, Kielsen and Lomsa. The whole of Poland is now under modified martial law. The bank clerks of the city struck today for higher wages. Several of the banks at once agreed to the clerks' demands.

Letter from Father Gopon.

Paris, March 1.—A letter from Father Gopon, formerly leader of the St. Petersburg strikers, appears in Humanite today, in which the Czar is termed an assassin of his people. The letter reads: "Nicholas Romanoff, formerly Czar, now assassin of the empire. Full of simple faith, I marched toward thee peacefully, accompanied by your people, and you knew it was but a peaceful mission. Innocent blood will always separate you, assassin, and the Russian people. You can no longer stem the popular stream, now furiously swollen, even by promises of a national assembly. Dynamite bombs and popular insurrection await all thy race. Torrents of blood, perhaps, will be shed through thy default, and Russia may perish. Therefore, I adjure you, renounce quickly the throne and appear before the tribunal of the people. Have pity on thy country. Oh, thou who offeredest peace to the people's slaughterers."

Nan Patterson.

New York, March 1.—Justice William J. Gaynor, in the Brooklyn Supreme Court, today, reserved his decision in the application for bail on a writ of certiorari in the case of Nan Patterson, charged with killing Caesar Young. Application for bail was made by Abe Levy, counsel for the accused, who stated that Miss Patterson was suffering from general debility, and in view of her long confinement in the Tombs, should be accorded either an immediate trial or be admitted to a reasonable amount of bail. He said that the District Attorney had given him a tentative promise that his client would be tried in April, but that it was more than likely to be several months later before she would be brought into court for trial. In opposing the application, Assistatant District Attorney Rand said that Miss Patterson would be given a trial as soon as possible, but it would be unfair to other prisoners charged with homicide in the Tombs to give the woman any precedence and privilege.

Burning of a Mail Car.

Connellsville, Pa, March 1.—The big mail car on train No. 9, the westbound Baltimore & Ohio, express burned to the trucks this morning between Cook's Mills and Ellerslie, on the Connellsville division. Mail Clerk Frank Free and his two assistants pulled the emergency signal and with the train slowing down jumped to the ground. They were bruised by the fall, but not seriously injured. The tank was low with the water and the car was destroyed. Two hundred and fifty thousand dollars in currency was lost with the train. Hundreds of pounds of mail and 1,500 registered letters destroyed. A big consignment of eastern mail for Connellsville was in the fire. The trucks were pulled off the the track, the train couple up and the run into Connellsville made, from where the three clerks went to their quarters in Pittsburg.

Railroad Accident.

Fairmont, W. Va., March 1.—Several persons are injured, some of them badly, as the result of a wreck on the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad at Colfax, two miles from here, at 3 o'clock this morning. Passenger train No. 7, westbound, left Grafton a few minutes late. Running at good speed, toward this city, the coach behind the baggage car jumped the track a short distance above the station at Colfax and ran along on the sleepers for half a mile until the wheels struck the track of a cross-over switch, when they overturned the car. Of the fourteen persons in the coach, seven are injured. Passengers in the other coaches were not injured.

Death of George Rice.

Asbury Park, N. J., March 1.—Geo. Rice, for twenty years past the implacable enemy of the Standard Oil Co., died in a cottage here on Monday last of bronchitis, superinduced by an attack of grip and general breakdown. His death was kept secret by his relatives, as there were in his rooms at the Astor House, New York, a number of papers which his relatives feared might be obtained by persons antagonistic to his interests. George Rice was 65 years old. He had been keeping the Standard Oil Company in more or less hot water for two decades past.

Japanese Loan.

Tokio, March 1.—Bankers and financiers, who met today to discuss the subscriptions to the domestic loan, found that the amount required had been twice over subscribed. When the list was opened it was ascertained the bankers had announced they would take 60,000,000 yen, the imperial household 50,000,000 yen and others 40,000,000 yen. Count Okum, speaking of the financial capacity of Japan, said it astonished even the friends of the nation. Japan, he said, would be able to continue the war without the slightest embarrassment.

City Council.

There was but little business transacted at the meeting of the City Council last night. There was a joint session for the purpose of electing a School Trustee from the Fourth ward. Two candidates were before the joint session—Messrs. H. F. Robertson and Thomas L. Carter—and the lattter was elected after several ballots had been taken.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

All the Aldermen save Vice President Curtin were present. No business originated in the board and the action of the Common Council on two papers sent in was concurred in. Later the Aldermen proceeded to the chamber of the Common Council for the purpose of participating in the election of a School Trustee and upon their return adjourned.

COMMON COUNCIL.

The board was called to order soon after the hour of meeting.

The street committee reported in favor of the proposal to pave Royal, Cameron and Fairfax streets around the market as soon as the property holders thereon shall deposit one half the cost of the work in front of their property and the subject was laid over, as Mr. Straus, the mover, was not present. The report stated that the total cost would be about $12,800, of which amount the owners of abutting property would have to pay $3,722,10, and the city the remainder, $9,077.90.

The action of the Alderman at their last meeting rejecting an application of certain builders for the compulsory measurement and inspection of lumber came up.

Mr. Brill moved that the board non concur.

Mr. Burke said that only one carpenter had appeared before the committee in favor of the measure, while two of the lumber dealers had opposed it.

Mr. Harrison said that all the builders had signed in favor of the proposal. Two lumber dealers were opposed to it.

Mr. Burke said the fees of the needless measurer must be paid by the consumer, which would add to the cost of building.

Mr. Snowden asked if the present law provided for a measurement if any party called for it and was answered in the affirmative.

Mr. Williams urged that the election of a lumber inspector showed the need of the office; if there was no need the office should be abolished.

Mr. Burke said the office was, in a measure, useless.

Mr. Marshall asked if any representative of the glass factories had appeared before the committee. These factories, he said, consumed a large quantity of lumber and he was opposed to extra tax on them.

Mr. Harrison said that the glass factories had favored the inspection of lumber.

Mr. Snowden called attention to the fact that the courts had decided against the legality of compulsory measurement. He said that under the present law any one who asked for an inspection or measurement of lumber could secure it, but he did not like the compulsory feature, nor did he wish to add to the cost of building, which he regretted, for some time had not been very active in Alexandria.

The vote resulted—yeas 4, nays 9, and the board then concurred with the Alderman, 9 to 4.

Mr. Leadbeater presented an ordinance authorizing the Alexandria Fertilizer & Chemical Company to construct a bridge not less than 25 feet above the level of the street across Union street, between Queen and Princess streets. Referred to committees on streets and general laws.

Mr. Bryan presented the revenue bill for 1905-6 which was referred to the committee on finance.

JOINT SESSION.

The board convened in joint session to elect a school trustee from the Fourth ward vice T. J. Fannon, resigned.

Mr. Marshall nominated Thomas L. Carter.

Mr. Hellmuth nominated Henry F. Robertson.

First ballot: Robertson, 9; Carter, 10. One other ballot resulted similarly and the third ballot stood: Carter, 13; Robertson, 6, so Mr. Carter was declared elected.

The joint meeting dissolved, and the board adjourned.

CONGRESSIONAL.

Almost eleven hours of the Senate's time yesterday was occupied in the consideration of the Indian appropriation bill. It passed shortly before midnight. There was quite a lengthy discussion of the committee amendment prohibiting the use of tribal funds in the support of sectarian schools.

A half dozen bills intended to remedy the defects in the laws as to inspection of steam vessels, which were brought to the surface by the disaster to the General Slocum in New York, were passed. At a late hour last night the Senate began the consideration of the postoffice appropriation bill, which was taken up again at today's session.

The session of the House was devoid of any incidents such as marked the closing hours on Monday. On the contrary, the proceedings were orderly and without particular note. As an evidence of the approaching adjournment, a large number of bills were passed by unanimous consent, and an evening session was held in order to discuss the general deficiency appropriation bill.

During the day the bills amending the homestead laws as to lands in South Dakota and Colorado, so as to permit the entry of 640 acres, instead of 160, were discussed. Final action on them, however, was prevented by the dilatory tactics of the opposition.

COURT OF APPEALS.

The proceedings of the Court of Appeals yesterday were as follows:

Blair vs. Security Bank of Richmond, argued and continued.

Next cases to be called: Bishop vs. Bagby and others; NcNaboe, sub. tr., vs. Hofheimer; Southern Railway Company vs. Back's administrators; Taylor vs. Taylor, and Brammer's administrators vs. Norfolk and Western Railway Company—being Nos. 40, 42, 48, 51 and 53 on argument docket.

The joint seision then dissolved.

An adverse report of the Committee on General Laws on the petition of carpenters and contractors of the city to have all lumber inspected by the Inspector of Lumber was received from the Board of Aldermen. A motion by Mr. Brill to non-concur in the action of the Board of Aldermen was lost by the following vote: Ayes—Messrs. Williams, Brill, Harrison and Spinks (4); noes—Messrs. Leadbeater, Burke, Risheill, Baader, Hellmuth, Uhler, Marshall, Bryan and Mr. President (9); and the action of the Board of Aldermen was concurred in.

Nelson Whips Corbett.

Battling Nelson, of Chicago, made Young Corbett, of Denver, appear the poorest tyro at the fighting game last night, when he practically knocked him out in the middle of the ninth round, at Woodward's Pavillion, San Francisco. In order to save their man a complete knockout, the seconds threw up the sponge. In the early part of the fight on several occasions Corbett straightened Nelson up with rights and lefts on the jaw, but when it came to following up his advantage his swings were wild. He seemed to be overanxious, while Nelson at all time was cool and confident. In the seventh round, when it appeared as if Corbett were practically gone, he showed a flash of his old-time speed, and landed several severe punches on Nelson' ribs and jaw. It was only a spurt, however, and Young Corbett soon lapsed into his semi-groggy condition, which lasted until the end of the fight. Nelson's plan of battle was to force Corbett around the ring, keeping close to him all the time. Whenever Corbett missed a swing, Nelson was there with a return, which generally landed.

Nelson had hardly a mark this morning to show for the fight, which was probably the fastest ever pulled off in San Francisco, while Corbett's face and body were battered and bruised. The one time champion admitted that Nelson was his master, and a great fighter. Corbett said: "I have no excuse to offer for my defeat. I was beaten fairly by Nelson, and wish him success in future battles. The only thing I am sorry for is that my friends lost their money on me. I thought sure I would win."

Ran Man to His Death.

George Henderson, a North Carolina negro, about 26 years of age, was drowned at Calary's milldam, on the Shenandoah river, in Page county, Monday, while being pursued by a crowd of men and boys living at Ingham, a station on the Norfolk and Western Railroad, about 15 miles south of Luray. Henderson, it appears, was on his way to Martinsburg, W. Va., and was put off a freight train at Grove Hill, a station three miles south of Ingham. No sooner had he alighted than he was set upon by a crowd of men and boys bent on driving him from the town. Henderson started in the direction of Ingham, pursued by the crowd. When the negro reached Ingham he was again accosted and told to move rapidly on, which he did, followed by several men and youths of that place. To escape them he attempted to cross the river on the dam, and when about midway he was washed down the swift current into water 15 feet deep. The men who ran the man to his death were attempting to carry out an unwritten law of the community which forbids negroes from passing through or stopping in that section.

Weddings.

Miss Mary Wallace Pollard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis James Pollard, of this city, and Dr. Arthur Burton Crane of Washington, were married in the Methodist Episcopal Church South last night. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. P. Stump, pastor of the church, and the bride was given in marriage by her father. The bride wore white mousseline over white taffeta, and carried a bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley. Her sister, Miss Hattie Pollard, was the maid of honor, and Mrs. Robert F. Green was matron of honor. They both wore white organdie gowns with green girdles, and carried pink roses. The bridesmaids were Miss Stansbury, Miss Taylor and Miss Simmons. They wore white gowns made over green, and carried maidenhair ferns. Dr. Crane was attended by Mr. Fred I. Nobles, of Washington, and the ushers were Messrs. Frank Pollard, brother of the bride; Jesse B. K. Lee and Albert Norcross, of Washington, and Dr. Louis S. Glenn, of Beverly, N. J. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Charles G. Lennon. After the ceremony the bridal party was tendered a reception at the residence of the bride's parents, corner of Cameron and Patrick streets, and later Dr. and Mrs. Crane left for the north. They will make their home in Washington. Among those from a distance at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. U. B. Crane, of Plainfield, N. J., the parents of the groom, his sister Mrs. Hugh Morgan Smith of New York city, and his brother, Mr. Robert N. Crane, of Washington, etc. Dr. Crane is engaged in the practice of dentistry in Washington. He is a lecturer in the Dental Department of the Georgetown University. He is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, and has a large circle of friends in this city, Philadelphia and Washington.

A number of relatives and friends of Mr. Charles Dilger and Miss Annie Graumann were present in St. Mary's Church last night to witness their marriage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Cutler. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Malene Graumann, and the groom by Mr. Martin Quinn. The bride was attired in blue crepe de chene, trimmed with lace, and hat to match. The bridesmaid wore white crepe de chine. After the ceremony the newly-married couple and their friends repaired to the home of the bride's parents, on Oronoco street, where a reception was held. Mr. and Mrs. Dilger will reside in this city.

Mr. Jos. M. Smith and Miss Anna G. Fuse, both of Baltimore, were married in this city yesterday evening at 3 o'clock at the parsonage of the M. E. Church South, by the pastor, Rev. J. P. Stump.

Mr. Bernard Fitzpatrick, of Washington, and Miss Ruth Lillian Rodgers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Rodgers, will be married by Rev. H. J. Cutler at 6:30 o'clock this evening. After the ceremony they will take an early train for an extended trip through the north. After their return they will be at home to their friends at 222 south Fairfax street, their future home.

The River.

The bleak picture presented by the river during the past few weeks was rendered still more frigid in aspect by the snowfall which made it difficult to discern objects a hundred yards away.

The Norfolk steamer arrived up this morning but an hour behind her schedule time.

Harbormaster Sutton brought his fleet of tugboats down from Washington this morning. He came ashore at this port and intimated that he was by no means pleased with the statements made in this city to the effect that his fleet simply single-filed up and down the river in the Norfolk steamer's track last Sunday. It was noticed this morning that the tugs formed a platform in proceeding down the river, by which means the ice was being broken up all the way across the channel.

The Weems Line steamers Anne Arundel and Calvert left Baltimore yesterday for the Patuxent and Potomac. The Tivoli and Middlesex both arrived at Baltimore, yesterday, after being frozen in the ice on the Eastern Shore.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

George Lucas, arrested by Officers Henderson and Ticer charged with drunken and disorderly conduct, was fined $5.

Charles Palmer, colored, arrested by Officers Bettis and Sherwood at the instance of his wife, was dismissed.

Sallie Palmer, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $2.50.

James Griffin, arrested by Officer Henderson charged with assaulting and beating George Griffin, was fined $5.

The Advent of March.

March did not enter in a leonine manner, as is its wont, but cloudy, threatening and mild, and shortly after nine o'clock a blinding snowfall set in which rendered conditions exceedingly gloomy. Nearly everything on the river became obscured and the Maryland shore passed into a total eclipse. The band on the U. S. steamer Prairie, anchored off this city, endeavored to enliver the spirits of those compelled to plod about the wharves by discoursing "Good Old Summer Time" The snow seemed to fly more furiously as the strains were wafted over the ice.

Death of a Printer.

Mr. B. F. Entwisle, a well-known resident, died at his home, on south Lee street, at an early hour this morning. The deceased was the youngest son of the late William Entwisle. He was a printer by trade, and was an apprentice in this office 39 years ago. The deceased had recently been confined to his home with a severe cold which refused to yield to treatment. Mr. Entwisle was about 53 years old.

A meeting of the congregation of the Baptist Church will be held tonight for the purpose of electing a pastor. The deacons of the church will report in favor of calling Rev. Dr. W. F. Fisher, of Concord, who preached at the church last Saturday.

The Misses Jones announce that there will not be another meeting of the Junior Card Club until after Lent.

The ladies of the several whist clubs yesterday evening united in a whist tournament held at the residence of Mrs. T. Marshall Jones. The games were well and scientifically contested and at the end the handsome prizes were awarded to Mrs. H. F. Robertson, Mrs. T. M. Jones and Mrs. W. J. Boothe, jr.

Miss Blanche Fleming, of Portsmouth, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Georgeanna Lash, on Prince street, accompanied by her friend, Miss Leslie Wallace.

Mrs. H. Bloch, who has been on a visit to her old home in Germany, is expected to reach her home in this city tonight.

Alarms of Fire.

An alarm of fire was sounded in the northern part of the city shortly before 8 o'clock last night. The apparatus repaired to that locality, but no cause for the alarm could be ascertained.

The alarm this morning between 8 and 9 o'clock was caused by a slight fire at the residence of Mr. J. L. Marye, 323 south Pitt street. A bedspread had been set on fire by an oil stove and while an alarm was being sounded, Mrs. Roberts, wife of Officer Roberts, ran into the room, then full of smoke, and extinguished the flames.

There is considerable controversy in fire department circles concerning recent alarms, it being alleged by members of some companies that the notifications have not reached their houses promptly. The Fire Wardens will investigate the allegations. There is also some comment on the fact that the fire bells were not sounded Monday night while the watch house at Oronoco and Fayette streets was burning.

[Judge C. E. Nicol presiding.]

Mary Jane Tillman, colored, charged with the murder of James Evans; jury and verdict of not guilty.

The Trick that Failed.

Two policemen and the driver of a bread wagon set a trap at an early hour this morning for a bread thief. At the suggestion of the officers of the law the driver agreed to place bread in the box at the southwest corner of Wolfe and Fairfax streets and leave the receptacle unlocked. The officers were to secrete themselves nearby and await the appearance of the abstractor. The hours rolled slowly along until about dawn, when the storekeeper appeared and upon raising the lid of the box discovered that it had been rifled of a number of loaves of bread. The officers are at a loss to understand by what modus operandi the thief stole the bread literally before their eyes, except on the theory that, like one of old, he was surrounded by a cloud when passing through scenes of danger.

The Eagles.

Alva Aerie of Eagles have decided to give their first excursion to Marshall Hall on June 8. The affair will be a complimentary one, although the members have gone to the expense of chartering the boat for the day and night. Each member will be assessed a certain sum and it will no doubt be one of the most pleasant excursions given during the coming season. This organization is fast coming to the front and already numbers among its membership some of Alexandria's representative and prominent citizens.

Accident to a Train.

The two rear Pullman sleepers attached to north bound passenger train No. 38 on the Southern Railway were derailed about half a mile south of Rockfish at an early hour this morning. No one was injured. The passengers were transferred to the other portion of the train which proceeded toward this city. A wrecking train was dispatched from this city to the scene and the work of replacing the sleepers upon the rails was soon in progress. The accident is said to have been caused by the breaking of a coupler.

U. of V. Glee Club.

The University of Virginia Mandolin and Glee Club while on their annual tour will appear at the Opera House in this city on March 10, under the auspices of the Old Dominion Boat Club. A number of former Episcopal High School boys are members of the club, and Mr. Howard Hume, son of Mr. Frank Hume, is one of the managers.

An Ungrateful Tramp.

A negro tramp entered the kitchen of a residence on north Washington street this morning and asked the colored cook to give him something to eat. The woman placed a substantial breakfast before the darkey, and the latter, after dispatching it, took his leave. The cook subsequently discovered that the negro had carried off her pocketbook containing $5.

Athletic Contest.

The students of the Episcopal High School propose holding a field and track meet on their grounds near this city on Saturday, May 6, next. The contest will be open to competitors from Virginia and Maryland and the District of Columbia and a large crowd will probably witness the games.

We have received from the publishers—the Historic Guide Company, of Washington—a copy of a guide to visitors to Arlington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon. It is well printed, prettily illustrated and is of interest to the traveling public.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The gas pipe laid at the corner of Prince and Royal streets eight months ago is being renewed, having again been damaged by electrolysis.

During the month of February the Clerk of the Corporation Court recorded 30 deeds and issued 30 marriage licenses—26 to white and 4 to colored persons.

Complaint is made by some people of the disorderly proceedings of certain youths who work at night and awaken many sleepers in returning to their homes.

Marriage licenses were issued in Washington yesterday to Stephen Davis and Sarah F. Sailor, both of Alexandria, and to Robert J. Saffel and Minnie Molden, both of Linden.

The stockholders of the Cheeseman Chemical Company, recently chartered, met in this city today and organized with the same officers as named in the Gazette last week.

Mr. J. S. Beach, clerk of the Corporation Court, yesterday forwarded to the State Auditor at Richmond, a check for upwards of $1,000 for the amount of delinquent taxes paid during the past six months.

Thomas White, a 22-years-old negro, was picked up by the Washington police last night suffering from a gunshot wound in the arm. White said he had been shot by another negro at the Virginia end of the Long Bridge. It later developed that he had been shot by John E. Weissman, as White, it is alleged, was attempting to force an entrance into the fish store of the latter on One-Half street southwest Washington. Weissman discharged a load of bird shot into the side and arm of White, who is at the Emergency Hospital, though not in a serious condition.

The remains of Gus Wilburn, colored, who was killed in a barroom in Alexandria county last Saturday night, were interred this morning in the county by Undertaker Wheatley, of this city. No relatives of the dead man could be found.

Alexandria Council, Royal Arcanum, held a well attended and interesting meeting last night at which two candidates were initiated.

Wilmer, infant son of Mr. Daniel Fry, died at his father's residence, 1108 Cameron street, this morning.

The lodge of Rebecca will meet tonight when there will be an initiation of a new member.

Fifty-Eighth Congress.

Washington, March 1.

SENATE.

Immediately upon assembling at 11 a. m., today, the Senate passed a House bill revising the tariff of the Philippine Islands.

The attempt of Mr. Hansbrough to have it amended to exclude wheat imported into the United States from drawback benefits, failed.

Consideration of the postoffice appropriation bill begun at midnight, last night, was resumed.

Mr. Clay (dem. Ga.) opposed an extension of the pneumatic tube service. He contended for economy.

Mr. Foraker defended the proposed extension of the service.

Mr. Nelson and Mr. Gorman succeeded in their assault upon the provision. By a vote of 31 to 30, the amendment increasing the pneumatic tube service appropriation from $500,000, to $800,000, and providing for the extension of the service was voted out.

Mr. Foraker gave notice that when the bill came into the Senate from the committee of the whole, he would again offer the amendment just rejected.

Senators Allison, Ankeny, Dietrich, Dolliver, Frye, Fulton, Hale, Long, Millard, Nelson, and Stewart, republicans, voted against the amendment.

The provision permitting fourth class matter not exceeding sixteen ounces, to be carried at a rate of one cent for each two ounces, went out on a point of order.

The Senate, in committee of the whole, by a vote of 31 to 30, rejected the amendment increasing the pneumatic tube service appropriation $300,000, and providing for an extension of the service. Mr. Foraker gave notice that when the bill came into the Senate he would again offer the amendment.

HOUSE.

The House met today at 11 o'clock and the morning hour was devoted to the consideration of minor bills.

The fight against the bills increasing from 160 acres to 640 acres the size of homesteads claims in the desert land of Colorada and South Dakota, was renewed when Mr. Needham moved to recommit the bills.

Mr. Needhams motion was lost, 95 yeas to 164 nays.

Both bills were then passed.

The conference report on the consular and diplomatic appropriation bill was agreed to.

The conference report on the District of Columbia appropriation bill was agreed to, and the general deficiency appropriation bill, the last of the great appropriation bill to be considered, was road, for amendment.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, MAR. 1, 1905.

Little Girl Tossed by Bull.

A runaway bull on North avenue at the beginning of Walbrook, Baltimore, injured a little girl while attempting to gore her yesterday afternoon and created great excitement along that thoroughfare until the animal was finally driven into a farm on the Liberty road. The bull broke away from the yard of a butcher on North near Pennsylvania avenue and started up the avenue, causing pedestrians to seek places of safety. As the bull started off it was pursued by a number of men armed with various weapons, including pitchforks, pistols and guns, but distanced the pursuers.

At First street and North avenue little Florence Bell was on the pavement a few squares from her home, at 2527 west North avenue. The bull saw the child and attacked her. The bull saw the child and attacked her. The little girl ran, but was unable to escape from the infuriated animal, which rushed at her with lowered horns and tossed her.

Fortunately for the child, the horns of the bull did not pierce her, but caught in her clothing. She was tossed in the air, but her fall was broken by a barbed wire fence, which held her until those who had witnessed the affair ran up and released her. She was placed in a wagon and removed to her home. It was found that she was bruised and that her garments were torn, but she did not appear to be injured seriously by the trying experience, although she was suffering from shock. Meanwhile the men pursuing the animal arrived, and the bull was driven into a field and there secured.

The same bull, or another one, knocked down and injured two men some little distance from where the girl was tossed.

Stuttering Children.

A special department for the instruction of stuttering children has been established in the public schools of Vienna, according to a report received by the State Department from U. S. Consul-General Rublee. "The number of pupils in each class is limited to eight," writes Mr. Rublee, "and the children are to withdraw from other school attendance, as it is essential that they devote themselves exclusively to the course for the cure of stuttering. In order to be admitted to the classes, the pupils must present medical certificates that they are free from any organic disease that would interfere with the purpose of the instruction. During the period of the special instruction it is necessary that the children have a separate room at home where they can practice the exercises given them without any disturbances whatever. The parents must undertake to have the children practice their exercises at home at least four hours daily, and during the first two weeks must not allow them to speak at all except to practice the exercises prescribed by the course of instruction. At the end of five weeks the instructor brings each pupil back to his regular school and indicates to the teacher what has been accomplished besides giving advice concerning his further instruction."

Are You Engaged?

Engaged people should remember, that, after marriage, many quarrels can be avoided by keeping their digestion in good condition with Electric Bitters. S A. Brown, of Bennettsville, S. C., says: "For years my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a torpid liver, until she lost her strength and vigor and became a mere wreck of her former self. Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once, and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists, sells and guarantees them at 50c a bottle.

A Dinner Invitation.

After a hearty meal a dose of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will prevent an attack of Indigestion. Kodol is a thorough digestant and a guaranteed cure for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Gas on the Stomach, Sour Risings, Bad Breath and all stomach troubles. N. Watkins, Lesbus, Ky., says: "I can testify to the efficacy of Kodol in the cure of Stomach Trouble. I was afflicted with Stomach Trouble for fifteen years and have taken six bottles of your Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which has entirely cured me. The six bottles were worth $1,000 to me." Sold by all druggists.

Nothing will cure Indigestion that dosen't digest the food and give the stomach a rest, It isn't necessary to starve yourself in order to rest your stomach—take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It will digest any quantity of all the wholesome food you want to eat while your stomach takes a rest—recuperates and grows strong. This wonderful preparation is justly entitled to all of its many remarkable cures. Sold by all druggists.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Unequalled for Constipation.

Mr. A. R. Kane, a prominent druggist of Baxter Springs, Kansas, says: "Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are, in my judgment, the most superior preparation of anything in use today for constipation. They are sure in action and with no tendency to nauseate or gripe. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS

An Old and Well-Tried Remedy.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

There is one rational way to treat nasal catarrh: the medicine is applied direct to the affected membrane. The remedy is Ely's Cream Balm. It restores the inflammed tissue to a healthy state without drying all the life out of them and it gives back the lost senses of taste and smell. The sufferer who is tried of vain experiments should use Cream Balm. Druggists sell it for 50 cts. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York, will mail it.
